

Six-month index of articles

January through June 1992

ASSISTANTS

Tips for hiring the best staff possible. Jan. 6, p. 102
Only you can prevent employee burnout. Jan. 20, p. 120
Proven ways to foil embezzlement. Feb. 3, p. 94

Get your office ready for Uncle Sam's new rules. April 20, p. 81
New curbs on employers could land you in court. April 20, p. 188

MEDICAL ECONOMICS will send physicians any three articles without charge. Additional copies are $2 each. Whole issues of the magazine may be purchased for $10 as long as the supply lasts. Write the Reader Service Department, Medical Economics magazine, Five Paragon Drive, Montvale, N.J. 07645-1742. Please include payment with your order.

BILLINGS

Design a charge slip that gets you paid every time. Feb. 3, p. 117
What you must know to crack the new codes. April 6, p. 164
How the phone lines can speed up your claims. May 4, p. 59
Will your Medicare claims stand up? May 4, p. 168
Could there be a $30,000 hole in your practice? May 18, p. 184
"That's not a billing service. It's a Bermuda Triangle." June 15, p. 71

CARS

How much will your new car shrink in value? March 2, p. 168
Medical Economics Road Tests:
•The Lexus ES 300. April 20, p. 186
•The Subaru SVX. June 1, p. 70
Make sure your car is fixed right—the first time. April 20, p. 223
Five cars for drivers who want it all. May 4, p. 46
Cut the insurance cost on your next car. May 18, p. 103

COLLEAGUES

Make sure your consultants rate the right A's. March 2, p. 90
My locums are homegrown. March 16, p. 127
Why are we so reluctant to talk shop these days? March 16, p. 174

These consult requests leave me fuming. May 18, p. 83
Why didn't we heed our colleague's plea for help? June 15, p. 61

COMPETITION

What happens when an NP competes with doctors. April 6, p. 60

How megaclinics are building competitive clout. April 20, p. 98

COMPUTERS

Let your computer be your lawyer? April 6, p. 117
Why I never miss the good old days. April 20, p. 159
How the phone lines can speed up your claims. May 4, p. 59

CORPORATIONS

Don't let the tax man profit if your practice splits. Feb. 3, p. 139
Ignore these problems, and your practice could collapse. May 18, p. 139

EDUCATION

An FP's hobby becomes his legacy to medical education. March 16, p. 102
Let's stop terrorizing doctors-in-training. April 6, p. 27

ESTATE PLANNING

Make your life insurance do more for your family. May 4, p. 193
Mistakes your heirs will pay heavily for. June 1, p. 34

Continues on page 194

Six-month index of articles

January through June 1992

ASSISTANTS

Tips for hiring the best staff possible. Jan. 6, p. 102
Only you can prevent employee burnout. Jan. 20, p. 120
Proven ways to foil embezzlement. Feb. 3, p. 94

Get your office ready for Uncle Sam's new rules. April 20, p. 81
New curbs on employers could land you in court. April 20, p. 188

MEDICAL ECONOMICS will send physicians any three articles without charge. Additional copies are $2 each. Whole issues of the magazine may be purchased for $10 as long as the supply lasts. Write the Reader Service Department, Medical Economics magazine, Five Paragon Drive, Montvale, N.J. 07645-1742. Please include payment with your order.

BILLINGS

Design a charge slip that gets you paid every time. Feb. 3, p. 117
What you must know to crack the new codes. April 6, p. 164
How the phone lines can speed up your claims. May 4, p. 59
Will your Medicare claims stand up? May 4, p. 168
Could there be a $30,000 hole in your practice? May 18, p. 184
"That's not a billing service. It's a Bermuda Triangle." June 15, p. 71

CARS

How much will your new car shrink in value? March 2, p. 168
Medical Economics Road Tests:
•The Lexus ES 300. April 20, p. 186
•The Subaru SVX. June 1, p. 70
Make sure your car is fixed right—the first time. April 20, p. 223
Five cars for drivers who want it all. May 4, p. 46
Cut the insurance cost on your next car. May 18, p. 103

COLLEAGUES

Make sure your consultants rate the right A's. March 2, p. 90
My locums are homegrown. March 16, p. 127
Why are we so reluctant to talk shop these days? March 16, p. 174

These consult requests leave me fuming. May 18, p. 83
Why didn't we heed our colleague's plea for help? June 15, p. 61

COMPETITION

What happens when an NP competes with doctors. April 6, p. 60

How megaclinics are building competitive clout. April 20, p. 98

COMPUTERS

Let your computer be your lawyer? April 6, p. 117
Why I never miss the good old days. April 20, p. 159
How the phone lines can speed up your claims. May 4, p. 59

CORPORATIONS

Don't let the tax man profit if your practice splits. Feb. 3, p. 139
Ignore these problems, and your practice could collapse. May 18, p. 139

EDUCATION

An FP's hobby becomes his legacy to medical education. March 16, p. 102
Let's stop terrorizing doctors-in-training. April 6, p. 27

ESTATE PLANNING

Make your life insurance do more for your family. May 4, p. 193
Mistakes your heirs will pay heavily for. June 1, p. 34

Continues on page 194

ETHICS

How much is a life worth? Jan. 20, p. 94
How an ethics panel can—and can't—help you. May 18, p. 166

FAMILY

The most fun a family can have losing money. Feb. 3, p. 130
Why do doctors marry doctors? Feb. 3, p. 178
Who's that making rounds with me? Meet my kids. Feb. 17, p. 176
It's family reunion time, and the doctor is in. March 16, p. 148
I've given meaning to our infant son's death. April 20, p. 91

FEES

The fee schedule will be only one of your worries. Jan. 6, p. 29
What determines your new Medicare fees. Feb. 17, p. 24
What you must know to crack the new codes. April 6, p. 164
Will private insurers start paying like Medicare? April 20, p. 50
Could there be a $30,000 hole in your practice? May 18, p. 184

FOREIGN HEALTH CARE

Does Germany hold the key to U.S. health-care reform? Jan. 6, p. 148

Britain's doctors and patients near a turning point. April 6, p. 88
For Romanian doctors, life can only get better. May 4, p. 176

GOVERNMENT MEDICINE

The fee schedule will be only one of your worries. Jan. 6, p. 29
Would my battle with the bureaucrats never end? Feb. 3, p. 84
What recruiters won't tell you about joining the reserves. Feb. 3, p. 146
What determines your new Medicare fees. Feb. 17, p. 24
Did doctors really win this fight with Medicare? March 2, p. 65
What it will take to save rural practice. March 16, p. 122
What to do when your PRO comes calling. March 16, p. 184
What you must know to crack the new codes. April 6, p. 164
Want these people running our whole health system? April 20, p. 212
Will your Medicare claims stand up? May 4, p. 168
I've got to practice geriatrics in secret. May 18, p. 33
I'm finally putting third-party paperwork where it belongs. May 18, p. 157
PROs make us waste time and money. June 15, p. 29
What's ahead in payment reform and practice controls? June 15, p. 162

HEALTH INSURANCE

Health-care reform: What does Hawaii have to teach? Feb. 3, p. 158
Will private insurers start paying like Medicare? April 20, p. 50
The health insurer wanted to play games. But I won. June 15, p. 101

HOME

Build your own home? I've got three words of advice. Jan. 20, p. 157
Time to trade in your mortgage? April 6, p. 104
Level the playing field when you buy a home. April 20, p. 196

HOSPITALS

Don't let visitors sabotage your patient's recovery. Feb. 3, p. 65
Are ERs and convenience clinics fleecing your patients? Feb. 17, p. 60

Can a hospital dump a doctor for "business reasons"? April 20, p. 129
Overlooking a source of help at your hospital? May 4, p. 130
How an ethics panel can—and can't—help you. May 18, p. 166

HUMOR

What an HMO really is. March 16, p. 79
Funny Bones cartoon series:
•Cartoons by Martin Bucella. April 20, p. 216
•Cartoons by Stan Fine. May 4, p. 137
•Cartoons by Dave Harbaugh. May 18, p. 132
•Cartoons by Rex May. June 1, p. 131
•Cartoons by George Dole. June 15, p. 127
Reach out and irritate someone. June 1, p. 95

INSURANCE

When to drop that life insurance policy. Jan. 6, p. 64
How to save big on life insurance. Jan. 20, p. 167
They offered our money back if we'd keep quiet. No deal! Feb. 17, p. 42

Continues on page 197

INSURANCE (cont.)

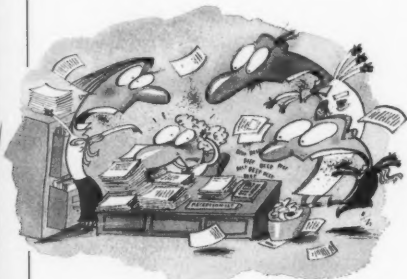

Make your life insurance do more for your family. May 4, p. 193
Cut the insurance cost on your next car. May 18, p. 103

INVESTMENTS

This doctor led patients and friends to investment disaster. Jan. 6, p. 108
They offered our money back if we'd keep quiet. No deal! Feb. 17, p. 42
How to be a winner at the track. Feb. 17, p. 125
What the pros learned on an investment roller coaster. March 6, p. 46
Are you making any of these investment mistakes? April 6, p. 45

Bonds

Time for a fresh look at hospital bonds. April 6, p. 70

Want higher bond yields? Look overseas. April 20, p. 164
Today's munis: tempting yields, sobering risk. June 15, p. 78

Mutual funds

Money funds are always safe? Here's how to be sure. Jan. 6, p. 128
Big profits from small stocks grow—sometimes. Jan. 6, p. 139
When to give up on a mutual fund. March 2, p. 124
Funds that blossom by investing close to home. April 6, p. 184
Are mid-sized companies your best investment bet? April 20, p. 61
Who says you can't afford the best fund managers. April 20, p. 139
Want higher bond yields? Look overseas. April 20, p. 164

What mutual-fund promoters don't tell you. May 4, p. 78
Make sure your mutual fund comes from a good family. May 18, p. 73

Real estate

Should you buy real estate from this dealer? Jan. 6, p. 69
Why nine physicians were labeled "racketeers." Feb. 3, p. 30
Mortgage investments: They can pay off big, but . . . April 20, p. 119
How to be a winner at a real estate auction. June 1, p. 99
Some real estate investments are still healthy. June 15, p. 131

Stocks

Big profits from small stocks grow—sometimes. Jan. 6, p. 139
Take a chance on stocks kicked out of the nest? Jan. 20, p. 78
For these companies, the war on crime pays. March 16, p. 135
Are you making any of these investment mistakes? April 6, p. 45
Are mid-sized companies your best investment bet? April 20, p. 61
Need a money manager to watch over your portfolio? May 18, p. 196
Signposts that can lead you to superstocks. June 1, p. 44
Maybe you should buy a piece of Wall Street. June 1, p. 164
Is the party over for biotech stocks—or just beginning? June 15, p. 154

LAW

Did a hospital's "old boy" network maroon this M.D.? Jan. 20, p. 48
Why nine physicians were labeled "racketeers." Feb. 3, p. 30
Ignoring these laws will cause big headaches. Feb. 17, p. 179
How "advance directives" can ease your burden. April 6, p. 75

Let your computer be your lawyer? April 6, p. 117
Get your office ready for Uncle Sam's new rules. April 20, p. 81
Can a hospital dump a doctor for "business reasons"? April 20, p. 129
New curbs on employers could land you in court. April 20, p. 188
Does a doctor's reporting duty extend this far? May 18, p. 49
Retaliate when a lawyer lets you down? June 1, p. 85
Be careful what you tell your lawyer. June 15, p. 65
Legal papers your group can't do without. June 15, p. 178

LOCATION AND DISTRIBUTION

In a small-town practice, life is . . . different. Feb. 3, p. 180

What it will take to save rural practice. March 16, p. 122
I'm practicing in the slow lane—and it's great! April 20, p. 231

MALPRACTICE

Malpractice warning: Don't make patients guess what you mean. Jan. 6, p. 87
Why some malpractice threats never die. March 2, p. 40
"Hired gun" isn't a synonym for "medical whore." March 16, p. 41
Can you escape malpractice judgments in an island paradise? March 16, p. 93
How I survived six malpractice suits. March 16, p. 165
What improved my patient communications? Getting sued. April 6, p. 54

I help plaintiffs' lawyers—but I'm on your side, too. April 6, p. 100.
Two unsigned letters got me sued for malpractice. April 6, p. 141
What makes you vulnerable in an informed-consent suit? April 6, p. 204
Does a doctor's reporting duty extend this far? May 18, p. 49
Doctors second-guess their worst patient-care decisions. June 1, p. 115
Keep that patient from becoming a plaintiff. June 15, p. 171

MANAGED CARE

HMOs have turned hospital doors into stone walls. Jan. 6, p. 60
That was me—the doctor in the unemployment line. Jan. 6, p. 77
Health-care reform: What does Hawaii have to teach? Feb. 3, p. 158
HMOs drove me out of Minnesota. Feb. 17, p. 153
We "de-capitated" our practice. March 2, p. 117
What an HMO really is. March 16, p. 79
HMOs try to measure (and reward) "doctor quality." April 6, p. 206
I tried to plug HMO practice. Why wouldn't they listen? May 4, p. 97
Insurance clerks are the real gatekeepers. June 1, p. 29

MEDICAL ECONOMICS SURVEYS

How doctors fare in the most populous states. Feb. 3, p. 36
When, or whether, to retire. Feb. 17, p. 162
Emergency physicians: They're racking up big gains. March 2, p. 153

MEDICAL PROFESSION

Everybody wants to play doctor. Jan. 20, p. 37
Why bad doctors aren't kicked out of medicine. Jan. 20, p. 126
If medicine isn't fun, you're doing something wrong. April 6, p. 125
Big houses can bring big trouble for doctors. May 4, p. 74
When a TV commentator bashed doctors, we hit back. May 18, p. 211
Whose fault is it doctors aren't "special" anymore? June 1, p. 183

MEDICAL-CARE COSTS

It's time to close the health-and-racket clubs. Feb. 3, p. 21
Are ERs and convenience clinics fleecing your patients? Feb. 17, p. 60
How four health-care gurus would change American medicine. Feb. 17, p. 64

The key to lower health costs: a doctor's educated guess. Feb. 17, p. 199
There's a surefire way for doctors to cut health costs. March 2, p. 31
Our cost-containment efforts are doomed to fail. April 20, p. 42
Behind the IVF hype: a shocking failure rate. June 1, p. 152
Business gets tougher than ever on doctors. June 15, p. 38

PARTNERSHIP AND GROUP PRACTICE

Be sure that new associate is ready for partnership. Jan. 6, p. 163
Picking the right doctor to run your group. Jan. 20, p. 83
Surefire ways to make a good partner feel unwanted. Feb. 3, p. 110
Groups want you—and they're ready to pay the price. Feb. 17, p. 48
A doctor's biggest flub: picking the wrong partner. Feb. 17, p. 101
Once these doctors stopped fighting, their income doubled. March 2, p. 147
Keeping a lid on supply costs. March 16, p. 195
The new associate seemed terrific. Then he arrived. March 16, p. 226
How megaclinics are building competitive clout. April 20, p. 98
The only reasons a practice merger ever makes sense. April 20, p. 179
Painful surprises when practices merge. May 4, p. 102
Would big-group practice be like this for you? May 4, p. 150
A young associate took these doctors for a ride. June 1, p. 197

Legal papers your group can't do without. June 15, p. 178

PATIENTS

HMOs have turned hospital doors into stone walls. Jan. 6, p. 60
Malpractice warning: Don't make patients guess what you mean. Jan. 6, p. 87
"Please marry us"—and other memorable requests. Jan. 6, p. 115
Some patients grab you by the heart. Jan. 6, p. 131
How to get patients to really hear you. Jan. 20, p. 65
Why my first patient is still so special. Jan. 20, p. 117
Don't let visitors sabotage your patient's recovery. Feb. 3, p. 65
How we bar the door to potential problem patients. Feb. 3, p. 82
One word can be your key to patient communication. Feb. 3, p. 153
In a small-town practice, life is . . . different. Feb. 3, p. 180
Why my patient finally came back. Feb. 17, p. 88
Why did my patients refuse crucial care? Feb. 17, p. 142
What I learned about life in a wheelchair. March 2, p. 103
Give these little extras, and watch your practice grow. March 2, p. 133
Persuading your patient to have that test. March 2, p. 183
The patients no doctor wants. March 16, p. 70
I make time go faster in my waiting room. March 16, p. 114
Three keys to improving compliance. March 16, p. 230
The patient who made me fear for my life. April 6, p. 36
How "advance directives" can ease your burden. April 6, p. 75
I thought this child's abuse had ended—but it hasn't. April 20, p. 144
Psychiatrists keep me from helping my patients. May 4, p. 41
Don't let your patient's expectations get out of hand. May 4, p. 184
This doctor worked a miracle—of caring. May 18, p. 65
These consult requests leave me fuming. May 18, p. 83
Your patient isn't the only one who needs a diagnosis. May 18, p. 119
Let patients show you hidden problems in your practice. June 1, p. 56
Doctors second-guess their worst patient-care decisions. June 1, p. 115
Behind the IVF hype: a shocking failure rate. June 1, p. 152

What I told patients who smoked: Quit, or get out! June 1, p. 170
 Are you doing all you can for these patients? June 15, p. 108
 Keep that patient from becoming a plaintiff. June 15, p. 171
 What your patient doesn't need—hollow optimism. June 15, p. 187

PEER REVIEW

Did a hospital's "old boy" network maroon this M.D.? Jan. 20, p. 48
 Why bad doctors aren't kicked out of medicine. Jan. 20, p. 126

Did doctors really win this fight with Medicare? March 2, p. 65
 What to do when your PRO comes calling. March 16, p. 184

PERSONAL FINANCES

That was me—the doctor in the unemployment line. Jan. 6, p. 77
 What recruiters won't tell you about joining the reserves. Feb. 3, p. 146
 Can you escape malpractice judgments in an island paradise? March 16, p. 93
 Time to trade in your mortgage? April 6, p. 104
 How to get banks to treat you special. April 6, p. 151
 Make sure your car is fixed right—the first time. April 20, p. 223
 Big houses can bring big trouble for doctors. May 4, p. 74
 Don't let poor schools block you from small-town life. June 1, p. 187
 How you can be your worst financial enemy. June 15, p. 51

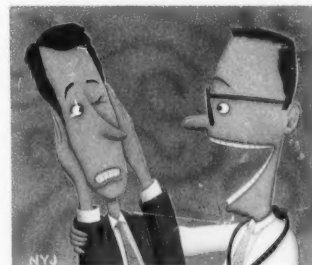

PERSONAL LIFE

A doctor's collection shows death's part of life. Jan. 20, p. 70

That's me, the medical-book author. You can be one, too. Feb. 3, p. 75
 The most fun a family can have losing money. Feb. 3, p. 130
 Why do doctors marry doctors? Feb. 3, p. 178
 The children of the Nobel Sperm Bank. Feb. 17, p. 106
 How to be a winner at the track. Feb. 17, p. 125
 This doctor's second career is a real knockout. March 2, p. 54
 An FP's hobby becomes his legacy to medical education. March 16, p. 102
 What it's like to be a marrow donor. March 16, p. 144
 I ran away from doctor burnout. April 6, p. 110
 I've given meaning to our infant son's death. April 20, p. 91
 For these doctors, life can only get better. May 4, p. 176
 Looking for a challenge? Try being a cop. May 4, p. 197
 Talk about pushing yourself! May 18, p. 112
 The world's only flying Tourette surgeon. May 18, p. 215
 An inferno consumed my home—and almost my life. June 1, p. 50
 How to retire happy. June 1, p. 73
 How'd I wind up in the desert—surrounded by tattoos? June 1, p. 134
 His vacation became a medical crusade. June 1, p. 172

PRACTICE MANAGEMENT

Don't overlook these crucial points in a practice sale. Jan. 6, p. 95
 Proven ways to foil embezzlement. Feb. 3, p. 94
 Design a charge slip that gets you paid every time. Feb. 3, p. 117
 Simple steps to boost your collections. Feb. 17, p. 159
 Give these little extras, and watch your practice grow. March 2, p. 133
 Once these doctors stopped fighting, their income doubled. March 2, p. 147
 I make time go faster in my waiting room. March 16, p. 114
 My locums are homegrown. March 16, p. 127
 Keeping a lid on supply costs. March 16, p. 195
 Who's to blame when a practice nets only 7 percent? April 20, p. 153
 What $1 million in advertising can buy. May 18, p. 87
 Ignore these problems, and your practice could collapse. May 18, p. 139
 Let patients show you hidden problems in your practice. June 1, p. 56

PRACTICE, SPECIAL TYPES

I help plaintiffs' lawyers—but I'm on your side, too. April 6, p. 100
 How'd I wind up in the desert—surrounded by tattoos? June 1, p. 134

PROFESSIONS, OTHER

Everybody wants to play doctor. Jan. 20, p. 37
 Be ready when a lawyer tries this trick. March 16, p. 85
 What happens when an NP competes with doctors. April 6, p. 60
 Level the playing field when you buy a home. April 20, p. 196
 Looking for a challenge? Try being a cop. May 4, p. 197
 Retaliate when a lawyer lets you down? June 1, p. 85
 Be careful what you tell your lawyer. June 15, p. 65

RECORDS

Why plaintiffs' attorneys love all-purpose operative notes. March 16, p. 191
 What improved my patient communications? Getting sued. April 6, p. 54
 Overlooking a source of help at your hospital? May 4, p. 130

RETIREMENT

When, or whether, to retire. Feb. 17, p. 162
 Paying too much for someone to run your pension plan? March 2, p. 73
 Should you be nervous about your 401(k)? March 2, p. 197
 Don't let these mistakes ruin your retirement dreams. May 4, p. 121
 At last—a new pension plan as good as it sounds. May 18, p. 38
 I'm finally putting third-party paperwork where it belongs. May 18, p. 157
 How to retire happy. June 1, p. 73
 How a partner should start cutting back. June 15, p. 146

SALARIED PRACTICE

Tempted by salaried practice? Ask these questions first. Jan. 6, p. 123
My short, unhappy life in academia. April 20, p. 207
I tried to plug HMO practice. Why wouldn't they listen? May 4, p. 97
Would big-group practice be like this for you? May 4, p. 150
Writing a CV that brings interviews. May 18, p. 127

SOLO PRACTICE

Why are we so reluctant to talk shop these days? March 16, p. 174
Who's to blame when a practice nets only 7 percent? April 20, p. 153

SPECIALTY AND GENERAL PRACTICE

I've got to practice geriatrics in secret. May 18, p. 33
Don't specialize yourself out of practice. June 15, p. 88

TAXES

How a tax adviser won his own pension-plan audit. Jan. 6, p. 54
Don't overlook these crucial points in a practice sale. Jan. 6, p. 95
Don't lose out on home-office deductions. Jan. 20, p. 57
Answers to your tax questions: Jan. 20, p. 115; Feb. 3, p. 176; Feb. 17, p. 91; March 2, p. 113; March 16, p. 89.
How I finally escaped the IRS maze. Jan. 20, p. 150
I took the broom to an IRS witch-hunt. Feb. 3, p. 53
What it takes to make deductions stick. Feb. 3, p. 101
Don't let the tax man profit if your practice splits. Feb. 3, p. 139
Finding your way to these '91 tax cuts. Feb. 17, p. 135
Tax blunders you can repair on your '91 return. March 2, p. 46
Will your tax return light up the IRS computer? March 16, p. 212
Mistakes your heirs will pay heavily for. June 1, p. 34

TRAVEL

Our byword for cruises: very personal. Jan. 20, p. 109

Get a hotel discount? Today it's easy. Feb. 3, p. 141
My CME trip never got off the ground. Feb. 17, p. 95
Why I can't get enough of Thailand. March 2, p. 82

Egypt gave me the chills—the good kind. May 4, p. 110
Thumbs up for Swiss country inns. May 18, p. 186
Getting the best deal on an airline ticket. June 1, p. 107 ■

© 1992 MEDICAL ECONOMICS

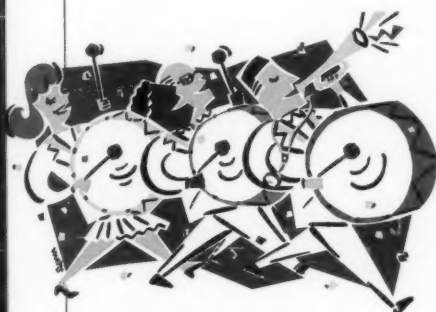

"It's to help buy a big window on the north side of your house."

Six-month index of articles

July through December 1992*

ASSISTANTS

Doctors fatten their employees' pay. July 20, p. 176
 Are these malpractice bombs ticking in your office? Aug. 17, p. 128
 Your staff's grouchy? Guess who's to blame. Oct. 5, p. 122
 Find out how your staff really sees you. Oct. 5, p. 171
 Wasted time is costing you $50,000 a year. Nov. 16, p. 67
 How do you rate with your office manager? Nov. 16, p. 96
 Why a crook might wind up working in your office. Nov. 16, p. 136
 How we've saved 1,400 hours of wasted staff time. Dec. 7, p. 73

BILLINGS

Speed up the flow of third-party payments. July 6, p. 127
 Why was this busy practice headed for disaster? Aug. 17, p. 97
 My charge slips make E/M coding a breeze. Dec. 7, p. 63

*For the index of articles in the January-June issues, see June 15, 1992, p. 192.

MEDICAL ECONOMICS will send physicians any three articles without charge. Additional copies are $2 each. Whole issues of the magazine may be purchased for $10 as long as the supply lasts. Write the Reader Service Department, Medical Economics magazine, Five Paragon Drive, Montvale, N.J. 07645-1742. Please include payment with your order.

CARS

Make your car a thief's nightmare. July 6, p. 77
 Medical Economics Road Tests • Oldsmobile Ninety Eight Touring Sedan. July 6, p. 122; the Mercedes 500SEL. Aug. 3, p. 124
 Will your next car be electric? July 20, p. 98
 Collectible cars just got affordable again. Oct. 5, p. 128
 Make the test-drive a real test. Oct. 19, p. 44
 Use these tactics to cut the best deal. Oct. 19, p. 54
 Weigh the choice: buy vs. lease. Oct. 19, p. 61
 Pick the options that are worth the money. Oct. 19, p. 65
 Now put the warranty under a microscope. Oct. 19, p. 70
 The all-new 1993 Mazda 626. Nov. 2, p. 152

COLLEAGUES

Professional courtesy? Doctors should pay double. July 20, p. 166
 Medicine's generation gap grows wider. Sept. 7, p. 54
 When our partner died, so did a way of medicine. Nov. 16, p. 133
 Why can't doctors say these two comforting words? Nov. 16, p. 239

COLLECTIONS

I found a fast, cheap way to collect bad debts. Nov. 2, p. 149
 Who says inefficiency doesn't pay? Nov. 16, p. 179

COMPETITION

Can doctors compete with their own hospital? Sept. 7, p. 117
 The FTC cocks its fist, and doctors back off. Oct. 19, p. 78

COMPUTERS

Educate your patients without taking more time. Oct. 5, p. 92
 A 6½-pound device saves me tons of time. Nov. 2, p. 179
 How many headaches can a computer cause? Count 'em. Nov. 16, p. 246

DRUGS

Drug dealers cured my naiveté. Oct. 19, p. 178

EQUIPMENT

How to save big on medical equipment. July 20, p. 188

When doctors say Yes and insurers No. Nov. 16, p. 87

ESTATE PLANNING

A living trust can be great if you dodge these pitfalls. July 20, p. 90

Have your cake and leave it to your kids, too. Sept. 7, p. 69

The big, hidden tax that can bleed your estate. Oct. 19, p. 183

A simple checklist to keep it up to date. Nov. 2, p. 73

Some things shouldn't be shared with your spouse. Nov. 16, p. 242

ETHICS

This form helps patients make the hardest decision. Aug. 3, p. 96

How the rules of confidentiality are shifting. Nov. 2, p. 186

FAMILY

Don't let your kids grow up money-ignorant. July 20, p. 147

It took two divorces to teach me to slow down. Aug. 17, p. 78

Never bring your kids to the office? Says who! Sept. 21, p. 212

Why doctors don't like treating family. Oct. 19, p. 218

A simple checklist to keep it up to date. Nov. 2, p. 73

Our "family practice" was no cause for celebration. Nov. 16, p. 147

My patient awakened feelings I thought I'd forgotten. Dec. 7, p. 69

How Medical Families Spend Their Money. "We really are living in God's country." Dec. 21, p. 110

FEES

The patient cried "rip-off!" I changed his mind. July 6, p. 132

You're reading right: I love RBRVS! July 20, p. 27

Professional courtesy? Doctors should pay double. July 20, p. 166

Get started now on your own RBRVS. Aug. 3, p. 72

One doctor's Rx for the recession. Aug. 17, p. 49

Why was this busy practice headed for disaster? Aug. 17, p. 97

Guess who made me a Medicare cheat. Sept. 21, p. 165

What your colleagues are charging. Oct. 19, p. 190

Medicare coded me right out of practice. Dec. 7, p. 107

FOREIGN HEALTH CARE

What's really wrong with Canadian health care. July 6, p. 178

What it will take to really control health costs. July 20, p. 81

American values: Are they blocking health-system reform? Nov. 2, p. 126

GOVERNMENT AND POLITICS

How doctors would cure America's health-care crisis. Sept. 21, p. 41

How sick is the system? Sept. 21, p. 44

The Dx—and the Rx. Sept. 21, p. 62

Doctors' message to the politicians. Sept. 21, p. 92

Where business has turned against doctors. Oct. 5, p. 52

Bush vs. Clinton: What's ahead for doctors? Oct. 5, p. 184

The health plan Clinton will send to Congress. Dec. 21, p. 37

GOVERNMENT MEDICINE

Is there any reason not to participate in Medicare? July 6, p. 44
You're reading right: I love RBRVS! July 20, p. 27
There's no quick fix for our health-care system. Aug. 3, p. 29
Get started now on your own RBRVS. Aug. 3, p. 72
Edward L. vs. the Medicare bureaucrats. Sept. 7, p. 214
Non-doctors are using us to milk Medicare. Sept. 21, p. 33
National health insurance: still a bitter pill. Sept. 21, p. 76
Guess who made me a Medicare cheat. Sept. 21, p. 165
Bush vs. Clinton: What's ahead for doctors? Oct. 5, p. 184
Experts critique doctors' ideas for reforming health care. Oct. 19, p. 33
Avoiding the most common coding mistakes. Oct. 19, p. 101
Who says inefficiency doesn't pay? Nov. 16, p. 179
Will Minnesota's sweeping changes spread nationally? Dec. 7, p. 31
Medicare coded me right out of practice. Dec. 7, p. 107
The health plan Clinton will send to Congress. Dec. 21, p. 37
No kidding—there's a state where doctors like Medicaid. Dec. 21, p. 126

HEALTH INSURANCE

Speed up the flow of third-party payments. July 6, p. 127
Finding affordable health insurance for your practice. Aug. 3, p. 160
At last—a health plan doctors can love. Sept. 7, p. 170
Doctors' message to the politicians. Sept. 21, p. 92
Long-term care: Money's not your only worry. Oct. 19, p. 154
American values: Are they blocking health-system reform? Nov. 2, p. 126
Will Minnesota's sweeping changes spread nationally? Dec. 7, p. 31
What am I practicing—medicine or insurance? Dec. 21, p. 136

HOME

Absolutely the best way to sell your house. Dec. 7, p. 111

HOSPITALS

Can doctors compete with their own hospital? Sept. 7, p. 117
The FTC cocks its fist, and doctors back off. Oct. 19, p. 78
Our hospital keeps claims reviewers off my back. Dec. 7, p. 167

HUMOR

Funny Bones cartoon series: Cartoons by Chon Day. Aug. 17, p. 180; Fred Thomas Sept. 7, p. 167; John P. Sandy. Sept. 21, p. 175; Harvey Bosch. Oct. 5, p. 141; Tony Saltzman. Oct. 19, p. 152; Mel Yauk. Nov. 2, p. 197; Artemas Cole. Nov. 16, p. 124; Glenn Bernhardt. Dec. 7, p. 114

INCOME AND EXPENSES

Doctors fatten their employees' pay. July 20, p. 176
What's the recession done to your buying power? Sept. 7, p. 194
Practice expenses: Doctors pull hard on the reins. Nov. 16, p. 222
What patients think you're really worth. Nov. 16, p. 236
Managed care: The payoff keeps getting bigger. Dec. 7, p. 124

INSURANCE

Let a bank handle all your financial needs? Aug. 3, p. 50
Any holes in your safety net? Nov. 2, p. 84
At last—some new insurance pitches worth swinging at. Nov. 16, p. 213

INVESTMENTS

Let your investment adviser do his job. July 6, p. 39
What your stockbroker won't reveal. July 20, p. 154
Let a bank handle all your financial needs? Aug. 3, p. 50
His minor-league investment earns major-league fun. Aug. 17, p. 168
Commodities: why they're a worse gamble than ever. Sept. 7, p. 147
Finding an investment newsletter you can trust. Sept. 21, p. 110
What it takes to run a sideline business. Oct. 5, p. 203
Why would anybody invest in one of these funds? Oct. 19, p. 93
Would a hand-me-down limited partnership fit your portfolio? Oct. 19, p. 122

Conti. Jes on page 156

INVESTMENTS (cont.)

The long sleep may be over. Nov. 2, p. 96
 What's your wisest move with a big pension payout? Nov. 16, p. 58
 Is this your best bet for a sideline business? Nov. 16, p. 105
 An old investment favorite looks better than ever. Dec. 7, p. 55
 These tax-frees pay more, but how risky are they? Dec. 21, p. 74
 How to sell doctors almost anything. Dec. 21, p. 75

Bonds

Hunker down until the bull comes back. Nov. 2, p. 112

Mutual funds

These funds might give you a good night's sleep. July 6, p. 83
 How to spread your risk over thousands of stocks. Aug. 17, p. 43
 Imagine having $232 million to invest. Sept. 7, p. 96
 Income and growth? Try utility stocks. Sept. 21, p. 183
 Watch your step when you go for higher yields. Oct. 5, p. 68

For these stocks, history is the best sales pitch. Oct. 5, p. 144
 Why would anybody invest in one of these funds? Oct. 19, p. 93
 The hidden drawbacks of mutual funds. Nov. 16, p. 75
 An old investment favorite looks better than ever. Dec. 7, p. 55
 These funds march to different drummers. Dec. 7, p. 76

Real estate

Invest in someone else's tax problem? Aug. 17, p. 109
 Buying property abroad? Here's your guide. Aug. 17, p. 136
 Would a hand-me-down limited partnership fit your portfolio? Oct. 19, p. 122
 The long sleep may be over. Nov. 2, p. 96

Stocks

Spotting a new stock that will take off. July 20, p. 55
 Could you lead a shareholders' revolt? Aug. 3, p. 103
 Hot foreign stocks you can buy at home. Aug. 17, p. 68
 Build your defenses against a sudden market plunge. Sept. 7, p. 42
 Will stocks that went bust now go boom? Sept. 21, p. 153
 Income and growth? Try utility stocks. Sept. 21, p. 183
 For these stocks, history is the best sales pitch. Oct. 5, p. 144
 Stocks that thrive on penny-pinching. Nov. 16, p. 173
 An old investment favorite looks better than ever. Dec. 7, p. 55

LAW

Isn't there something better than suing? There is! July 6, p. 164
 Why you aren't shielded from the law's bad apples. July 20, p. 32
 How a hired gun's lies caught up with him. Aug. 3, p. 42
 Watch for traps in that "standard" contract. Aug. 17, p. 52
 Lawyers take aim at a landmark malpractice reform act. Oct. 5, p. 41
 Where business has turned against doctors. Oct. 5, p. 52
 I found a fast, cheap way to collect bad debts. Nov. 2, p. 149
 How the rules of confidentiality are shifting. Nov. 2, p. 186
 What's your responsibility for older patients who drive? Nov. 16, p. 114
 Scrap contingency fees? Malpractice problems might get worse. Nov. 16, p. 127
 Why a crook might wind up working in your office. Nov. 16, p. 136
 I blew my stack—and ended a malpractice ordeal. Dec. 7, p. 89
 Are you in danger of breaking your nest egg? Dec. 21, p. 50

LOCATION AND DISTRIBUTION

My dream practice had everything—except patients. Oct. 5, p. 115
 Must America look to non-doctors for primary care? Dec. 21, p. 82

MALPRACTICE

The courts warn: Make sure you're telling patients enough. July 6, p. 55
 What are your greatest malpractice risks? Aug. 3, p. 140

This doctor won a countersuit. But his war goes on. Aug. 17, p. 32
 Are these malpractice bombs ticking in your office? Aug. 17, p. 128
 This doctor went bare, then went bankrupt. Aug. 17, p. 144
 Who placed this patient in double jeopardy? Aug. 17, p. 184
 What's needed to keep a lid on malpractice premiums. Sept. 7, p. 31
 Are nasty surprises hiding in your malpractice policy? Sept. 7, p. 83
 Sued for malpractice—23 years later. Sept. 7, p. 176
 One easy way to head off malpractice suits. Sept. 21, p. 148
 Lawyers take aim at a landmark malpractice reform act. Oct. 5, p. 41
 Scrap contingency fees? Malpractice problems might get worse. Nov. 16, p. 127
 When your carrier's assigned lawyer isn't enough. Dec. 7, p. 46
 I blew my stack—and ended a malpractice ordeal. Dec. 7, p. 89
 How lawyers have invaded the delivery room. Dec. 7, p. 149

MANAGED CARE

Do HMOs make doctoring easier? Let me count the ways. July 20, p. 196
 At last—a health plan doctors can love. Sept. 7, p. 170
 I tell patients: An HMO is like a bus. Sept. 21, p. 240
 Managed care is a pox on us and our patients. Nov. 16, p. 46
 How to tell if an HMO will make you money. Nov. 16, p. 161
 Managed care: The payoff keeps getting bigger. Dec. 7, p. 124
 Our hospital keeps claims reviewers off my back. Dec. 7, p. 167
 No kidding—there's a state where doctors like Medicaid. Dec. 21, p. 126
 What am I practicing—medicine or insurance? Dec. 21, p. 136

MEDICAL ECONOMICS INTERVIEWS

How well is the AMA doing its job? Sept. 21, p. 200—an interview with James Todd, M.D.
 American values. Are they blocking health-system reform? Nov. 2, p. 126—an interview with Uue E. Reinhardt
 Must America look to non-doctors for primary care? Dec. 21, p. 82—an interview with Steven A. Schroeder, M.D.

MEDICAL ECONOMICS SURVEYS

Doctors fatten their employees' pay. July 20, p. 176
 What's the recession done to your buying power? Sept. 7, p. 194
 How doctors would cure America's health-care crisis. Sept. 21, p. 41
 How sick is the system? Sept. 21, p. 44
 The Dx—and the Rx. Sept. 21, p. 62
 National health insurance: still a bitter pill. Sept. 21, p. 76
 Experts critique doctors' ideas for reforming health care. Oct. 19, p. 33
 Pick the options that are worth the money. Oct. 19, p. 65
 What your colleagues are charging. Oct. 19, p. 190
 What kind of group practice works best? Nov. 2, p. 163
 Practice expenses: Doctors pull hard on the reins. Nov. 16, p. 222

MEDICAL PROFESSION

How a hired gun's lies caught up with him. Aug. 3, p. 42
 When our partner died, so did a way of medicine. Nov. 16, p. 133

MEDICAL-CARE COSTS

What it will take to really control health costs. July 20, p. 81

There's no quick fix for our health-care system. Aug. 3, p. 29
 American values: Are they blocking health-system reform? Nov. 2, p. 126
 When doctors say Yes and insurers No. Nov. 16, p. 87

OFFICE

Our office makeover cost less than $8,000. The results are priceless. July 6, p. 104
 How many headaches can a computer cause? Count 'em. Nov. 16, p. 246
 My practice survived Andrew's fury. Dec. 21, p. 53

ORGANIZED MEDICINE

How well is the AMA doing its job? Sept. 21, p. 200

PARTNERSHIP AND GROUP PRACTICE

Why every group needs a strategic plan. Aug. 3, p. 109
 If only I'd gotten my partner's promises in writing. Aug. 3, p. 127
 Take a hard look at that group practice offer. Aug. 17, p. 195
 "You need a marriage counselor, not a practice consultant!" Oct. 19, p. 168
 What kind of group practice works best? Nov. 2, p. 163
 Urgent care and family practice don't mix? Here they do. Nov. 16, p. 201

PATIENTS

The courts warn: Make sure you're telling patients enough. July 6, p. 55
 Feel like a real doctor again—do a 99352. July 6, p. 72
 Watch out when patients are too friendly. July 6, p. 117
 Patient education: Do it right, and everyone wins. July 6, p. 155
 Your grandmother was wrong! July 20, p. 119
 This form helps patients make the hardest decision. Aug. 3, p. 96
 One doctor's Rx for the recession. Aug. 17, p. 49
 I love my hate mail—and so should you. Aug. 17, p. 64
 My patients are fine. Their families drive me crazy. Aug. 17, p. 119
 I never get rid of "problem" patients. Aug. 17, p. 203
 What I've learned from kids (and other patients). Sept. 7, p. 216
 To patients like this one, the odds mean nothing. Oct. 5, p. 77
 Educate your patients without taking more time. Oct. 5, p. 92
 I get more from patients than I give. Oct. 5, p. 154
 Your colleagues are going all out to please patients. Oct. 19, p. 141
 Drug dealers cured my naiveté. Oct. 19, p. 178
 I looked at my practice through a patient's eyes. Nov. 2, p. 194
 What's your responsibility for older patients who drive? Nov. 16, p. 114
 What patients think you're really worth. Nov. 16, p. 236

PERSONAL FINANCES

Is your family spending out of control? July 6, p. 137
 Why you're not as wealthy as you should be. July 20, p. 107
 How medical families spend their money. "I haven't lived a bovine existence—so, no regrets." Sept. 21, p. 132; "We really are living in God's country." Dec. 21, p. 110
 Ever dream of being a banker? Wake up! Sept. 21, p. 217
 Are these the best guardians for your assets? Oct. 5, p. 106
 What it takes to run a sideline business. Oct. 5, p. 203
 Long-term care: Money's not your only worry. Oct. 19, p. 154
 Find where you stand before you move ahead. Nov. 2, p. 22
 Don't swallow the bait too quickly. Nov. 2, p. 55
 There's a way to dig out. Nov. 2, p. 63
 I.D. or not I.D.? That's the banking question. Dec. 7, p. 171
 How to sell doctors almost anything. Dec. 21, p. 75

PERSONAL LIFE

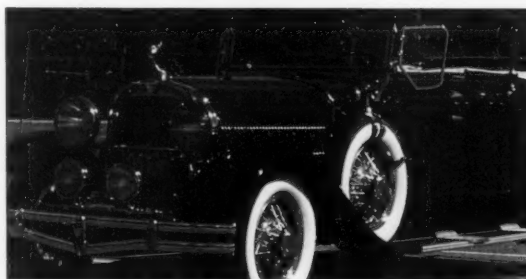

It sure feels good to be back in private practice. July 20, p. 66
 Who says the prices of good things always go up! Aug. 3, p. 87
 Is this doctor America's next country-music star? Aug. 3, p. 119
 What's the real reason women outlive men? Aug. 3, p. 172

It took two divorces to teach me to slow down. Aug. 17, p. 78
 This doctor dives into his investment dream. Oct. 5, p. 164
 Nothing could block her dream to be a doctor. Oct. 19, p. 110
 Why I don't take medicine's good people for granted. Nov. 16, p. 182
 Why can't doctors say these two comforting words? Nov. 16, p. 239
 My patient awakened feelings I thought I'd forgotten. Dec. 7, p. 69
 Where has this doctor gone? Dec. 7, p. 95
 My practice survived Andrew's fury. Dec. 21, p. 53
 The doctor who worked a miracle—on himself. Dec. 21, p. 139

PRACTICE MANAGEMENT

Seven "investments" that can make a practice thrive. July 6, p. 90
 Why every group needs a strategic plan. Aug. 3, p. 109
 Finding affordable health insurance for your practice. Aug. 3, p. 160
 Look what's happened to the three A's. Aug. 3, p. 185
 What I've learned from kids (and other patients). Sept. 7, p. 216
 Let an "undercover agent" check out your practice? Sept. 21, p. 126
 They worked harder, but earned less. Got the same problem? Oct. 5, p. 85
 Your staff's grouchy? Guess who's to blame. Oct. 5, p. 122

Find out how your staff really sees you. Oct. 5, p. 171

"You need a marriage counselor, not a practice consultant!" Oct. 19, p. 168

A 6½-pound device saves me tons of time. Nov. 2, p. 179

I looked at my practice through a patient's eyes. Nov. 2, p. 194

Wasted time is costing you $50,000 a year. Nov. 16, p. 67

How do you rate with your office manager? Nov. 16, p. 96

Urgent care and family practice don't mix? Here they do. Nov. 16, p. 201

My charge slips make E/M coding a breeze. Dec. 7, p. 63

How we've saved 1,400 hours of wasted staff time. Dec. 7, p. 73

PRACTICE, SPECIAL TYPES

I switched fields at age 59. What a relief! Sept. 7, p. 77

Who says work can't be this much fun? Oct. 19, p. 230

PROFESSIONS, OTHER

Let your investment adviser do his job. July 6, p. 39

Isn't there something better than suing? There is! July 6, p. 164

Why you aren't sheilded from the law's bad apples. July 20, p. 32

What your stockbroker won't reveal. July 20, p. 154

Imagine having $232 million to invest. Sept. 7, p. 96

Non-doctors are using us to milk Medicare. Sept. 21, p. 33

Why I don't take medicine's good people for granted. Nov. 16, p. 182

RECORDS

A 6½-pound device saves me tons of time. Nov. 2, p. 179

RETIREMENT

Can you answer these four crucial questions? Nov. 2, p. 42

Don't swallow the bait too quickly. Nov. 2, p. 55

What's your wisest move with a big pension payout? Nov. 16, p. 58

Is it time to terminate your pension plan? Dec. 7, p. 38

Are you in danger of breaking your nest egg? Dec. 21, p. 50

This makes retirement so much nicer. Dec. 21, p. 150

SALARIED PRACTICE

It sure feels good to be back in private practice. July 20, p. 66

SOLD PRACTICE

My dream practice had everything—except patients. Oct. 5, p. 115

SPECIALTY AND GENERAL PRACTICE

These moves could head off a crisis in primary care. Aug. 17, p. 27

After hours, this doctor turns detective. Sept. 7, p. 207

I get more from patients than I give. Oct. 5, p. 154

Here's a potential boost for your practice. Oct. 19, p. 128

Must America look to non-doctors for primary care? Dec. 21, p. 82

TAXES

I paid a "bribe" to get the IRS off my back. Sept. 7, p. 62

Have your cake and leave it to your kids, too. Sept. 7, p. 69

The big, hidden tax that can bleed your estate. Oct. 19, p. 183

It's not too late to ease the pain. Nov. 2, p. 28

Some things shouldn't be shared with your spouse. Nov. 16, p. 242

Is it time to terminate your pension plan? Dec. 7, p. 38

Your 1993 tax calendar. Don't miss even one of these crucial dates. Dec. 21, p. 98

TRAVEL

Why visit Patagonia? Just take a look. July 20, p. 134

St. Petersburg: Russia's past glory waits for a new dawn. Sept. 21, p. 228

Who says work can't be this much fun? Oct. 19, p. 230 ■

